

Doris Wagner M.Ed., BEd

Director-General for General and Vocational Education at the Federal Ministry of Education, Science, and Research

On May 3, 2021, Doris Wagner assumed the position of Director-General for Section I at the Ministry of Education, where she oversees General Education and Vocational Training. Before her current position, she was Head of the Pedagogical Service at the Education Directorate of Lower Austria.

She gained practical experience in the business sector, worked as an educator and served as the principal at the State Vocational School in St. Pölten.

After 15 years in educational oversight at the former State School Board of Lower Austria, she became the inaugural Head of the Pedagogical Service at the Education Directorate of Lower Austria. In this role, she led initiatives such as the change management process from the State School Board to the Education Directorate and completed numerous international stays.
