

Willem de Klerck

Regional Coordinator for Flanders for the European Year of Skills

Willem De Klerck is the head of the research department at the Flemish Ministry of Labour and Social Economy. In this role, he has been advising research and policy in Flanders for over 16 years.

As the head of the research department at the Ministry, he is responsible for research and policy advice in the field of labour and social economy. He's also responsible for the new founded centre of expertise on lifelong learning in Flanders.

Recently he has been appointed as Belgian regional coordinator (together with Guibert Debroux and Frederic Romano) for the European year of skills. Before his current position, he worked as a policy advisor at ABVV, the Belgian socialist trade Union.
